

OVERSEAS

Sh. Shashi Kant, IPS
Ex-Director General,
Punjab Police, Chandigarh, India

Mr. Shashi Kant, Ex-IPS is the former Director-General of Punjab Police by vocation but a social activist by choice. A tireless, fearless and peerless crusader against the menace of Drug Addiction, he is known the world over for his single-handed efforts of advocacy. He possesses a sagely attitude, a lion's courage, a 'softest' compassionate heart and is a pillar of strength for innumerable help-seekers.

Dr. Som Naidu is the current president of the Open and Distance Learning Association of Australia. He has spent most of his professional life in the higher education sector, enhancing learning and teaching practices in distance education, online learning and e-learning, as well as regular education. He has been an Assistant Professor, Senior Lecturer, Associate Professor and Head of various Universities.

Dr. Som Naidu, D. Litt.
Principal Associate
Monash University, Australia

Dr. Simin Ghavifekr, Ph.D.
Professor
University of Malaya, Malaysia

Dr. Simin Ghavifekr is an educationist actively engaged in educational management, planning and policy in Dept. of Education, University of Malaya, Malaysia. Instructional Technology is her preferred arena. She has wide expertise in Educational Leadership, Educational Change and many more. She is a member of British Educational Leadership and various associations & societies. She is an acclaimed reviewer of international bodies. Dr. Simin has several academic books and enormous volume of publications in her credit. She is bestowed with several National and International Excellence Awards. She also executed many educational projects at national & university level and guided several doctoral research works.

Dr. Md. Sirajul Islam is engaged in North South University, Bangladesh as Professor, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering (CEED) and Chair, Department of Environmental Science & Management (DESM). Dr. Islam has extensive experiences in different fields. His other fields of interest include urban environmental management, industrial compliance and building safety issues. He served for a number of international organizations and UN bodies. Dr. Islam is associated with Inter-governmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) as an Expert Reviewer. He has authored numerous research articles in international and national journals.

Dr. Md. Sirajul Islam, Ph.D.
Professor
North South University, Bangladesh

Dr. N. Balasundaram, Ph.D.
Professor
University of Jaffna, Sri Lanka

Dr. Balasundaram Nimalathan is the Professor in Accounting, Department of Accounting, Faculty of Management Studies & Commerce, University of Jaffna, Sri Lanka. His areas of interest are : Entrepreneurship Development. Project Management. Public Sector Accounting. Advanced Financial Accounting. and Computerized Accounting. Since his student days, Dr. Balasundaram has been awarded with countless prizes and merit awards. He is a regular author of academic books and examiner of Doctoral (PhD) thesis. He is a